Historical Sketch

According to a Martin history, Samuel Good, the grandfather of John G. Good, died in 1833. The grandmother was Barbara Martin Good who died in 1837. She was the fourth child of the family of Abraham Martin (1748-1815) and Barbara Oberholtzer, who owned the farm in the southwestern corner of Brecknock Township and now owned by Titus Weaver.

The Martin's are buried in the Red Run Mennonite Cemetery. Abraham was the son of immigrant David Martin (1691-1784) of Weaverland.

Preacher Samuel Good was a son of the above Samuel and Barbara Martin Good. He had a sister Barbara, single (1816-1854).

Preacher Samuel Good, the father of John G. Good, was born March 7, 1814 and died January 11, 1886, aged 71 years, 10 months, and 4 days. He was married to Esther Good, daughter of the minister Christian Good, and he was the great-grandson of the first settler, Christian Good. Esther Good was born November 9, 1819 and died October 10, 1855, aged 44 years, 11 months, and 1 day.

Samuel and Esther Good started housekeeping with her parents on a farm in Brecknock Township, between Union Grove and Bowmansville. The farm is now owned by Jacob Zimmerman.

The first Christian Good, our ancestor, and his brother, Jacob Good, and brother-in-law, John Musselman, settled near the site of the present village of Bowmansville. Christian Good was born in 1690 and died August 13, 1757. He had two wives, Susanna and Magdalena Good. He settled on the south fork of the Muddy Creek, about a quarter of a mile south from Bowmansville. There he erected the first grist mill in Brecknock Township, occupying the spot where the flour mill of Henry Von Neida is now situated. There were six sons and eleven daughters in this family.

His will dated August 11, 1757 commences with a quotation from Hebrews 9:17. In the will the oldest son, John, is "to be a proper example to the remainder and they are to be obedient and subject to him. He shall teach them to be honest and keep themselves from wickedness as much as possible".

The above paragraph and names were taken from "The Mennonite Historical Review", written by Rev. Ira D. Landis.

The names of the children of John and Barbara Bauman Good were as follows:—

John Good
Anna Good
Samuel Good
Christian Good

Christian Good died January 16, 1812, aged 68 years. His wife, Barbara Good, died May 20, 1822, aged 75 years. Their children were as follows:—

Maria Good — married David Martin, son of Abraham and Barbara Oberholtzer Martin. They moved to Canada about 1812.

Barbara Good — married Peter Burkhart.

Magdalena Good — married Joseph Horst.

Elizabeth Good — married John Burkhart, later married again.

Esther — single — February 12, 1839 — aged 55 years, 6 months, and 2 days.

Catherine — single.

Christian Good (Preacher — married Maria Bauman. married Maria Horst.

Preacher Christian Good married Maria Bauman April 24, 1804. Maria Bauman Good died June 22, 1808, aged 25 years, 1 month, and 12 days. Children:—

David Good — married Susie Bauman. They moved to Elkhart County, Indiana. He was a deacon at the Yellow Creek Congregation and helped to organize the church there.

Daniel Good — single — died September 4, 1875, aged 67 years, 11 months, and 26 days.

The second wife of Christian Good was Maria Horst who died January 5, 1843, aged 68 years, 2 months, and 5 days. Christian Good died August 30, 1838, aged 59 years, 6 months, and 30 days. The children to this union were:—

Esther Good — married to Preacher Samuel Good.

Susanna Good — married to Gideon Weaver (parents of M. G. Weaver).

Joseph Good — married Nancy Zerbe. He died April 11, 1838 at the old home, aged 24 years, 1 month, and 20 days. Nancy later married Daniel Palm.

Christian Good, a great-grandson of the original settler, was a minister at the Bowmansville Mennonite Church. He was ordained as a minister soon after Joseph Bowman moved to Canada in May, 1816. He was ordained at the age of 37 years and served 22 years. During the years of his early ministry, he made frequent and long trips on horseback with brother ministers from Muddy Creek and Conestoga Valleys, visiting the scattered churches in the Cumberland and Juniata valleys and several times extending his visits to the valleys of Virginia. Bishop Jacob Zimmerman and he often traveled together on these extended horseback trips. Bishop Jacob Zimmerman was an uncle of Emmanuel Zimmerman, our great grandfather. (See the Zimmerman family lineage). He lived on the farm east of Union Grove, owned by Reuben Hurst, where his son Reuben now resides.

(Much of the information concerning the Christian Good family was received from the records of M. G. Weaver).

All of the Christian Good family excepting David Good and Mrs. Gideon Weaver are buried in the Pine Grove Cemetery near Bowmansville.

M. G. Weaver writes as follows:

"Preacher Christian Good is described to us by men of good judgment who did not belong to his church, as a fine speaker of good influence among his people and in the community, often being called to preach at funerals for his neighbors at Center and Allegheny Lutheran and Reformed Churches; and in his ministry among these people, and in his companionship with their pastors he must have taken kindly to some of their customs and that he was greatly interested in the young people of his church, is shown by the fact that he gave certificates of membership to those who were baptized and received into the church. These certificates were made in scroll or ornamental penmanship, either by himself or by schoolteacher Joseph Good living near Bowmansville. I remember mother telling us that he was working on these certificates during his last illness, and that several young girls came to their house for them, and that owing to his weakness the last class of joining members whom he saw received into the church, some of them failed to receive the 'Taufschein' from him.

"In speaking to old people forty years ago, and of some things dropped in our house, we may well be led to the fact that Christian Good was rather the leader of the Bowmansville, Allegheny and Gehman's Congregations while there was no bishop in their district during his lifetime; and that his advices and counsel were often sought by Bishop Zimmerman and other ministers in the Conestoga Valley.

He believed in a strictly simple life and believed in letting God work through Nature for the sustenance of His people; and was much opposed to the accumulation of riches. When his neighbors began to haul lime from the Conestoga or limestones to be converted into lime, he would not follow their practice and even taught against it as believing that God would take care of the earth, and that faithful Christians should have no hand in trying to change His plans simply for the gain that there was in the result. He, however, believed in irrigation of meadow lands.

"His mode of travel was mostly on horseback or on foot; but during his last years there was a 'pleasure wagon' on his premises."

The following was taken from the will of (Preacher) Christian Good.

"A yeoman being to a certain extent sickly and weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding; praised be God for the same, and in order to be better prepared to leave this world whenever it shall please God to call me home, have concluded to make this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows to wit:

First, and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of the Almighty God, who gave it, and my body to the earth to be decently interred in a Christian-like manner. And as to such worldly estate as hath pleased the Almighty to entrust to my care in this life, I give and dispose of the same in the following manner to wit: To my beloved wife, Maria, as long as she remains a widow and no longer, the room at the west of my house with kitchen and room immediately above bake oven, etc."

Within two months after the death of Esther's father, Preacher Christian Good, the church ordained his successor as preacher and the lot fell on his son-in-law, Samuel Good. He was ordained October 19, 1838 for the Bowmansville District at the age of 23 years. He moved to the Conestoga valley in 1861, where he was accepted as a minister and was one of the servants until his death.

The following children were born to Samuel and Esther Good:

1. Maria Good — born March 28, 1836, died December 19, 1907, aged 71 years, 8 months, and 22 days. She was married to Samuel M. Sauder.
2. Abraham Good — born November 9, 1837, died March 9, 1838, aged 6 months.

3. John Good — born May 29, 1839, died November 7, 1910, aged 71 years, 5 months, and 8 days.

4. Christian Good — born October 29, 1841, died March 16, 1904, aged 62 years, 4 months, and 17 days.

5. Susanna Good — born March 18, 1844, died June 1, 1916, aged 72 years, 2 months, and 13 days. She was married to Benjamin Shirk.

6. Jacob Good — born October 5, 1846, died October 15, 1913, aged 67 years, and 10 days.

7. Barbara Good — born May 31, 1849, died June 5, 1887, aged 38 years, and 4 days. She was married to Christian M. Sauder.

8. Catherine Good — born October 17, 1851, died May 25, 1881, aged 29 years, 7 months, and 8 days. She was married to Francis Wenger.

After the death of his wife, Samuel Good married Rachel Bowman, daughter of John Bowman. Rachel Bowman Good was born August 29, 1826, and died September 17, 1883, aged 57 years, and 10 days.

To this union were born the following children:

1. Lydia Good — born July 10, 1858, died October 5, 1858, aged 2 months and 26 days.

2. Elizabeth Good — born November 17, 1859, died April 12, 1928, aged 69 years, 4 months, and 26 days. She was married to David M. Horst.

3. Samuel Good — born April 10, 1861, died May 31, 1861, aged 1 month, and 21 days.

4. Anna Good — born March 26, 1863, died December 7, 1880, aged 17 years, 8 months, and 11 days.

5. Sarah Good — born August 15, 1865, died December 11, 1868, aged 3 years, 3 months, and 26 days.

6. Magdalena Good — born February 25, 1870, died May 14, 1935, aged 65 years, 2 months, and 19 days. She was married to Benjamin Horning.

M. G. Weaver wrote the following for Susanna Good Sauder:

"Preacher Samuel Good, well remembered by us, did not like to drive in a carriage with less than three curtains on the side of his carriage; and his lightest pleasure carriage for many years had wooden spindles with iron cinch pins to keep the wheels in place. This carriage was in my memory; always kept in good order and cleanly washed.

"What would these fathers say if they would drive into the yards of the present Bowmansville or Weaverland Meeting House yards some morning with their old time rigs, or if they would come on horseback with their good wives and they could not even find a stepping stone or block to get from their horses?"

John Good, son of Esther and Samuel Good, was married to Mary Zimmerman on November 13, 1860. She was a daughter of Emmanuel Zimmerman, who was born June 1, 1811, and died December 28, 1890, and Maria Stauffer Zimmerman, born September 21, 1812, and died May 10, 1883. They are buried in the Martindale Cemetery. Maria Stauffer Zimmerman's parents were David and Anna Stauffer. David was born March 10, 1788, and died in October, 1855. Anna, his wife, was born June 29, 1793, and died July 28, 1864. They are buried in the Pike Cemetery. (Refer to the history of our Zimmerman ancestors).

John and Mary Good started housekeeping in the same house with his parents. This was during the time of the Civil War. Because of his non-resistant stand in refusing to take up arms, they had some unpleasant experiences. When Levi was a baby, shots were fired through the windows, and shattered glass fell on the cradle.

Martin and Susanna were also born here. When Susanna was 6 weeks old they moved to a farm between Union Grove and Churchtown. The farm is now owned by Reuben Hurst. John Good built the barn on this farm in 1870. They had a breath-taking experience while building this barn. One day when the workmen were eating dinner, Samuel, who was 3 years old, crawled up the ladder to the roof of the barn. The carpenter requested that no one say anything to the child that would scare him and cause him to fall. He came down safely without any mishap.

This was the birthplace of the rest of the family, and they can relate many experiences, and have pleasant memories of happenings at this place. The children attended the Center School, located near Center Church.

When Anna was 6 months old, the family moved to Blue Ball, where they lived for one year. After living at Martindale for two years they settled on a small farm between Terre Hill and Center Church. Harvey Good is the present owner of this place. During their stay here John Good was a butcher by trade, and attended the Reading Market. Having lived here for some time, they decided to live with grandfather Zimmerman, who lived on a big farm near Weaverland. This place, at the present time, is the home of one of Christ Zimmerman's sons.

From here they moved on a farm located between Lichty's Church and Churchtown, now occupied by Jacob Sauder.

Sometime later they moved back again to the small farm between Terre Hill and Center Church. They razed the old house, and lived in the barn until the new house was built, which was in 1901. By this time all the children were married except Anna, and she was married in the fall of 1901. John Good and his wife lived here for seven years until the death of the latter in 1908.

After her death, the home and household furnishings were sold, and John Good had his home among his family. He died at the home of his daughter, Hettie, and son-in-law, Solomon Martin, two years after the death of his wife.

HISTORY OF OUR ZIMMERMAN ANCESTORS

1. Clause Zimmerman, born 1647, died 1729. Children:

1. Hans
2. Annie, married Michael Hildebrand.
3. Christian

2. Hans Zimmerman died in 1786. He was married to Anna Weber, who died in 1784. Hans was born in Europe. They are buried in the Zimmerman graveyard which originally was a Welsh burial ground. It has been in the hands of the Zimmermans since 1748. The farm on which this cemetery is located was owned by five Christian Zimmermans, each one representing a generation handed down from father to son. In 1845, Bishop Jacob Zimmerman, as trustee, received a good title to the graveyard with legal rights and necessary privileges of entrance. In this old cemetery lie the remains of many of our ancestors as the Sauders, Goods, Hoffmans, Zimmermans, etc.

This Jacob Zimmerman, the third bishop of the Weaverland District, was chosen minister in 1813 and in the summer of 1815, was elevated to the office of Bishop to assist Henry Martin. He lived on the farm now owned by Reuben Hurst, east of Union Grove.

It was during his administration of the church that the first Lichty Meeting House was built in 1840 in a natural woods near the home where Martin Lichty used to live in Smoketown. Prior to the erection of that meeting house, services were held in the farm house of Peter Shirk, a grandson of the first preacher at Weaverland. When Peter Shirk died, the home passed to his son, Samuel Shirk, who built the large mansion as we know it today. It is where the Herbert Zeimers and Lester Goods now live.

Jacob Zimmerman was born July 17, 1784, and died September 14, 1856. His wife, Annie Wenger Zimmerman, was born February 28, 1793, and died September 15, 1853. They are buried in the Zimmerman graveyard.

3. The children of Hans and Annie Weber Zimmerman, daughter of Henry Weber, first settler:

1. Peter Zimmerman
2. Henry Zimmerman
3. Joseph Zimmerman
4. Christian Zimmerman

Christian Zimmerman — married Barbara Rutt. Christian was born in 1750 and died April 6, 1817. He weighed 400 pounds. They say he was over-weight and over-strong. He made a two-wheeled vehicle to carry him to church and other places. He did this because he was so heavy for a horse. This, I believe, was the first vehicle on wheels to come to Weaverland Church. He was criticized for breaking the established customs of riding or walking. Barbara, his wife, died October 14, 1811, aged 61 years. She is also buried in Zimmerman's Cemetery.

5. Barbara Zimmerman
6. Anna Zimmerman
7. Maria Zimmerman
8. Esther Zimmerman
9. Elizabeth Zimmerman

4. Christian (1750-1817) and Barbara Rutt Zimmerman. Their children:

1. Peter M. Zimmerman — married Esther Martin.
2. Christian Zimmerman — married Elizabeth Wenger.
3. Bishop Jacob (Yokel) Zimmerman — married Annie Wenger.
4. John Zimmerman — married Barbara Sauder. Barbara was a daughter of Henry and Barbara Sauder, our ancestors as appears earlier.
5. David Zimmerman

5. Christian and Elizabeth Wenger Zimmerman. Their children:

1. Barbara Zimmerman — married Samuel Martin.
2. Annie Zimmerman — married Benjamin Groff and moved to Ohio.
3. John Zimmerman — married Esther Wenger.
4. Emmanuel Zimmerman — married Maria Stauffer, daughter of David Stauffer.
5. Christian Zimmerman — died young.
6. Susanna Zimmerman — not married.
7. Peter Zimmerman — married Annie Weaver. (Father of Henry, Christian, and David Zimmerman).
8. Samuel Zimmerman — died young.
9. Isaac Zimmerman — died young.
10. Elizabeth Zimmerman — married Samuel Ernst and moved to Kansas.
11. Rev. Jacob Zimmerman — married Christanne Zimmerman, daughter of King Christian Zimmerman. He was a minister at Landis Valley and later joined the Weaverland Conference.
12. David Zimmerman, grandfather of David Zimmerman, of Martindale, and father of Preacher Menno Zimmerman. David married Maria Martin, daughter of George Martin.
13. Martin Zimmerman — not married.

6. Emmanuel and Maria Stauffer Zimmerman. Their children:

1. David S. Zimmerman — he was a deacon in the Stauffer (Pike) Church. Married Barbara Mink.
2. Jacob Zimmerman — married Maria B. Hoover.
3. Annie Zimmerman — married Samuel Rutt.
4. Elizabeth Zimmerman — married Jacob Horst.
5. Mary Zimmerman — married John G. Good.
6. Lydia Zimmerman (1844-1930) — not married.
7. Daniel Zimmerman — married () Erb.
8. Samuel S. Zimmerman — married Mattie Martin.
9. Martin Zimmerman — died June 13, 1872, aged 14 years.

Before moving to Weaverland, Emmanuel Zimmerman lived on one of the Ranck farms south of New Holland where the land was level. When they moved to the Weaverland farm where Christian Zimmerman now lives, they hitched the horse to the hay rake, not using backing straps, and the boy was accidentally - killed.

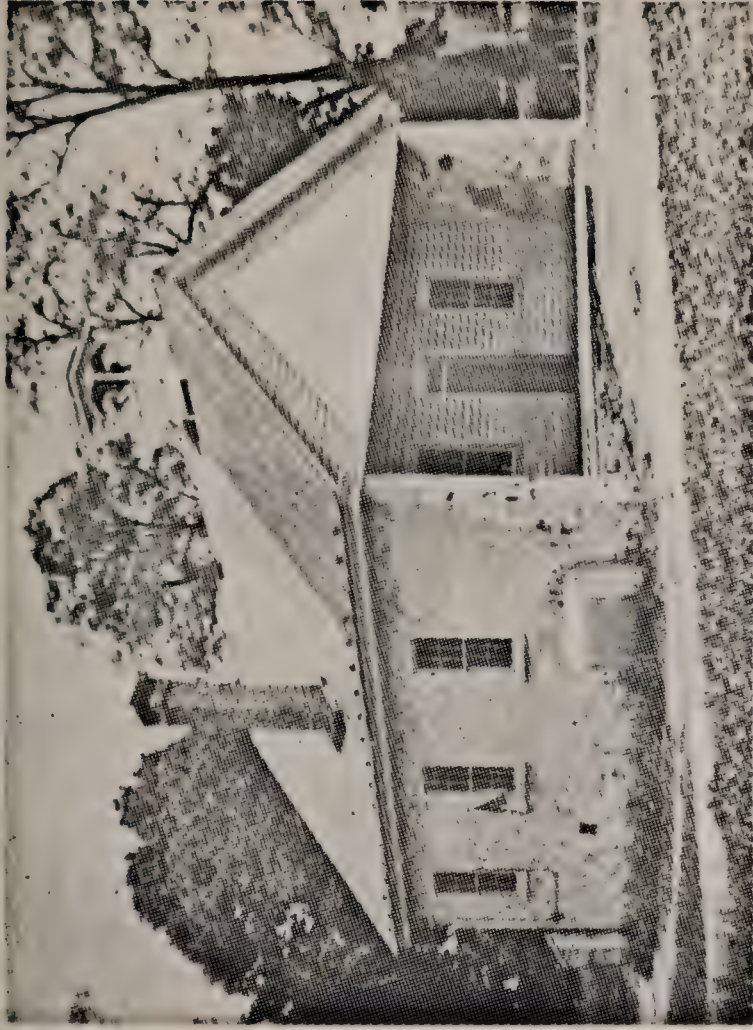

Descriptions by George Sauder

John Good was a medium-sized man, somewhat stooped, and bald-headed for many years. I think mother said he kept his hat on to eat sometimes on account of the flies. There were no screen doors in those days. He was a man who did not have too much to say following his pursuits diligently.

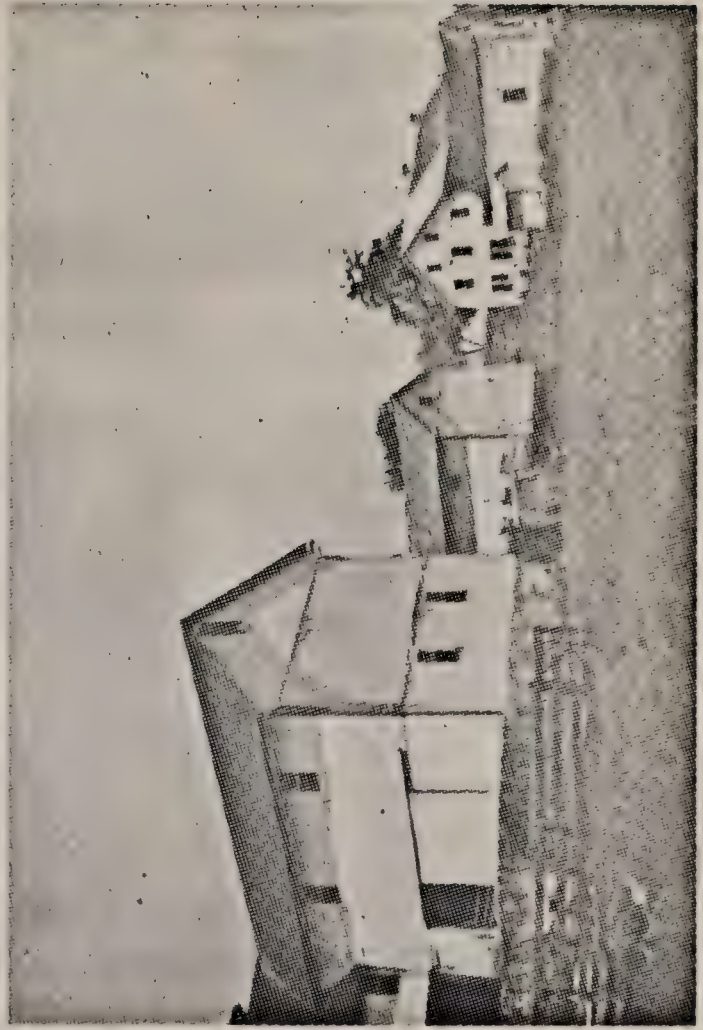

He was a butcher and farmer and always had plenty to do. He would come back from Reading Market in his horse-drawn butcher wagon on Saturday afternoons, tired from the toils of the week.

Mary Good was also a medium-sized woman, dark-haired, and pleasant looking. She was very sociable; a good entertainer and especially for children. Her grandchildren carry pleasant recollections of their visits to her. These occasions could not come too often.

She stated, as her grandchildren were maturing, that she wished she could live to see how they were coming along. She showed a keen interest in the welfare of her posterity.
